

CONFESSIONS BY GIRLS' ASSAILANTS ARE REPUDIATED

Intest Admitted By George Burford and Lawrence Fallon, In Jail.

ONLY JOYRIDE, THEY SAY

Both Prisoners Sign Statements Following Grilling By Mayor and Police. But Later Declare They Were Forced to Do So Under "Third Degree."

After signing statements in which they admitted attacking Lillian Katz, 13 years old, and Nellie Frankenthorp, 14, both of Uniontown, near Hopwood on Wednesday night during an automobile ride, George Burford, better known as "Terry," and Lawrence Fallon, whose nickname is "Irish," issued statements at the county jail this afternoon saying the confessions were forced and were untrue and denying that they assaulted the girls, though admitting they took them in the former's machine for a "joyride."

Insisting that he wanted to clear things up with the "least possible fuss and in the easiest way," Burford is said to have broken down last night after two hours of grilling by Mayor William H. Sparr, Corporal E. B. Beisel of the state constabulary and members of the police force, and to have signed a statement admitting the charges made by the girls. Information was made against him before Alderman J. W. Darby.

Burford was arrested at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The automobile in which the quartet drove to Hopwood was Burford's, it developed, a gift from his father, who is engaged in the coal business and is the owner of several machines.

Fallon was arrested early this morning at his home at Collier and subjected to the "third degree" during which he signed a similar confession, the officers said. He was also committed to jail.

In the later developments the two declare the story of the girls that they were taken into the car near the "Petin theatre was untrue; that instead they were accosted near their homes and invited to take a "joyride." The youths admitted criminal intent but declared they did not accomplish the purpose. Returning, they declared they left the girls out near home, instead of on the outskirts of the city, as the girls had related, and advised them "when in Pittsburgh, to call and see us," saying they had all along left the impression they were Pittsburghers.

According to the prisoners the girls were "large for their age." They were "big enough to flirt," they declared and defended their action by saying that "lots of people are doing it."

They contended that the story told by the girls was a frameup, concocted for the reason they were late in getting home.

The two girls are both students at the Uniontown high school. They are said to have identified Burford when taken to the police station last night. Miss Katz was not certain the authorities had the right man until Burford was induced to speak. When he spoke the girl asserted he was the right man, recognizing the voice.

Police hold the handcuffed said to have been forced down the throat of one of the girls.

Burford is 26 years old, Fallon 22. The arrest was made possible so quickly by the fact that one of the girls secured the license number of the car. This police were at first puzzled owing to the fact that the number of the car was that held by a well-known Uniontown man, the father of Burford. It developed then that the car had been presented by the father Burford to his son. Burford was working with the car at a garage when arrested. He protested ignorance of any reason why he should be taken into custody, inquiring what "honor law" he had violated.

FIRE LOSS OF $250,000 AT MADERA; 15 BUILDINGS BURN

Incendiaries Believed to Have Started Conflagration.

DYNAMITE TO QUELL IT

By Associated Press.

CLEARFIELD, Jan. 14.—Fire believed to have been of incendiary origin today destroyed 15 buildings in the business section of Madera, a thriving town in the bituminous coal district, with a loss estimated at $250,000.

Fire companies were summoned from Clearfield, Homestead, Osceola and Philadelphia but when it was found they could make no headway against the flames dynamite crews from nearby mines were called to the scene and blew up a number of buildings in the path of the flames.

Among the buildings destroyed was that occupied by the Madison Times, two moving picture theatres and the Hoffman hotel. Railroad men reported that just before the fire was discovered they saw two men running from one of the buildings which soon afterward burst into flames.

A determined effort is being made to run down the supposed incendiaries. Three persons were hurt, including a bystander who was struck by a flying piece of masonry after a dynamite blast.

BRADDOCK CHIEF TAKES BURGLAR, WOUNDS ANOTHER

Believing Wounded Man Down and Out He Took After Picking Companion; First Escapes.

By Associated Press.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 14.—An unidentified burglar was wounded and another was captured by Fred Selin, Braddock chief of police, while they were robbing the grocery store of Abe Miller in that place early today.

Selin was making his rounds when he saw two men rifling the cash register in the store. He went to the back door where he met one of the burglars, loaded with loot, leaving the building. Selin opened fire and the burglar, after running a short distance down a side street, fell to the sidewalk. Thinking to get him later Selin entered the store and easily captured the other man who gave his name as Alva H. Smith of Pittsburgh. When Selin returned for the wounded burglar he had disappeared.

Braddock, like other towns in the Pittsburgh district, has suffered for months from burglaries and the police have orders to shoot if necessary to capture the thieves.

Lieutenant Farrell was the first to leave the train accompanied by Mrs. Farrell, who had left New York to meet him. A crowd of relatives, naval officers and a group of business men from Rockaway greeted the party. The balloonists wore navy caps and blue suits and declared they were not any worse for their adventure.

There was no absorbing from the huge crowd assembled to catch a glimpse of the officers as they pushed their way out of the station.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND WEALTHY NEW YORKERS GUARDED

Elaborate Protection Scheme Precaution Against Radicals.

UNDER FEDERAL ORDER

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Public buildings, offices and homes of wealthy citizens were under heavy guard today by order of the police as a precautionary measure against possible radical demonstrations. Police officers were extremely reticent concerning the order, given verbally last night to the entire force, but they intimated it was prompted by federal authority. Supporting the belief that the order was the result of federal stimulus was the fact Chief Flynn of the Department of Justice secret service, made the rounds last night, giving instructions to the police and detectives.

Special attention was given to the protection of the homes of John D. Rockefeller, J. P. Morgan, Charles F. Schwab, Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes, Mayor John F. Hylan and citizens along Fifth avenue and other fashionable residential districts. Other cordons of guards were on duty at St. Patrick's cathedral, the Stock Exchange, the criminal court building, the Metropolitan museum and the federal building, all railroad stations, post office buildings and sub-stations.

As a result it is said, one of the prisoners hit Kuma on the head with a bar of iron and knocked him to the ground. As he got up and ran Kizer is alleged to have fired three shots at Kuma. When Kuma reached home he fell exhausted upon the floor of his house. A physician was called and put several stitches in the wounds on his head.

BISHOP POST DEFERS HOME PLAN FOR YEAR

In Meantime Every Effort Will Be Made to Increase Funds for Purpose.

LOCATIONS ARE DISCUSSED

Methodist Episcopal Church Among Properties Considered. Several Others in Mind; Officers Installed, Committees For Year Appointed.

A rousing meeting of members of the La Fayette Bishop Post, No. 301, The American Legion, held in the rooms in West Crawford avenue last night marked a good start for the year of 1921. Officers elected on Armistice Day were installed and many important events to be put on by the Legion were brought up.

The discussion concerning securing a permanent home for the organization held full attention for a time, also, but nothing will be done at this time to secure a home for the post. The Methodist Episcopal church, which will be vacated when the new structure is erected on the South Side, had been suggested but the matter has been entirely dropped for a year. Several other locations were also in the minds of members, but the post decided to keep adding to the home fund and table the question for a year.

Officers installed were: Charles A. McCormick, commander; Lloyd S. McClelland, vice commander; Charles A. Donnelly, adjutant; F. Ray Metzger, finance officer; Irving M. Snow, sergeant-at-arms; Rev. E. A. Glennon, chaplain; Fred D. Munson, legal aide; B. M. Schoff, historian.

Fred D. Munson, Rev. E. A. Glennon and Commander McCormick comprise a committee which will select a committee to arrange a schedule of events for the year.

A house committee, with the following members, was appointed: Max Plotz, chairman; Harry G. Mason, H. Dana Wright, J. M. Dilworth, Thomas W. Davidson and John J. Ranker.

Another committee, composed of Carl Plotz, Jack Torrence and Andrew Tremblay, has been appointed to look after the possibility of assisting the colored veterans of this region to organize a post of their own.

Tentative arrangements for a banquet were talked over and a committee to arrange for it following the completion of the schedule of events for the year was appointed. The committee includes John Kaufman, chairman; Herbert F. Dugan, Donald M. Campbell, Earl Russell, Louis J. Cole and Andrew J. Tremblay.

Rev. Glennon delivered an address previous to the taking up of the business and put the men in spirits for cleaning up the mass of work which faced the meeting.

Dr. Harrigan's Advice to

Nervous Exhausted People

It's worth your while to read what a New York specialist has to say about the nerve and brain cell builder that the Connelville Drug Co. sells so much of these days. He writes:

"Let those who are weak, thin, nervous, anemic or run-down, take natural unadulterated substances such as Nitro-Phosphate and you will soon see some astonishing results in the increase of nerve energy and strength of body and mind."

Nitro-Phosphate is a pure, erasable phosphate such as good physicians prescribe to create abundant nerve force. Adv.

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 14, 1921.

WHY THE YOUNG MAKE MISTAKES

The experience suffered by the two young girls of Uniontown who yielded to the temptation to take an automobile ride with strange young men at a late hour of night, should be an impressive lesson and a timely warning to other girls as well as to parents.

In this age, which is characterized by a lamentable decline in respect for parental authority and a corresponding indifference on the part of parents as to how or where their children spend the evenings, the desire uppermost in the thoughts and plans of the immature of both sexes is to "have a good time." Disregarding if they have ever received education and advice as to the dangers of making the acquaintance of strangers, young girls, often, as in the instance noted, fall easy prey to enticements, allurements and temptations in the belief that they will derive pleasure therefrom instead of incurring the gravest of perils.

In the spirit of independence which has so unfortunately become manifest in the lives of young people, many young girls take a hazardous pride in their ability to "take care of themselves." Scorning the suggestion that they should have older persons as escorts or chaperones when frequenting public places at night, they throw prudence and discretion to the winds when opportunity offers for an adventure or "lark" that promises to realize their desire for a so-called "good time." That they do not more frequently pay the penalty of their folly seems to serve less as a warning than as an incentive to others to assume the same kind of risks.

While the results of an early and unchaperoned acquaintance with the tendencies and influences of hastily formed acquaintanceships are never good but seldom quite the reverse that young girls, ought not to yield to such temptations. That they are thrown in the way of such temptations, or unable to resist them, parents are in large part to blame. Often engrossed with their own affairs, and sometimes preoccupied with the care of their children, they are unable to give the attention and supervision which should be theirs. They are often too busy to think of the dangers which such temptations hold for their children, and are too easily lulled to sleep by the thought of the "control" of the situation and the "control" of the situation and the "control" of the situation.

As compared with former years, when by their training children were more dependent upon their parents and more inclined to be submissive to their direction and control, fathers more and more are giving the reins of control to their children, and the result is that many young girls, but most unfortunately this larger freedom has been misconstrued and abused to the extent that young girls and boys feel they have become a law unto themselves. The responsibility for this attitude rests largely with parents, sometimes because of a too free indulgence of the whims and fancies of children and quite as often because of an unwillingness to take the pains necessary to inculcate the old-time wholesome ideas of respect for parental authority.

That the young make mistakes and take their own chances is a fact, but it is not having been sufficiently properly trained and influenced to work with the aid of the right kind of help or companionship as older and wiser persons—parents best of all—can provide.

THE FARMERS WHO KEEP STEEP.

While the Farm Products Show, held in the city, was regarded as exhibiting the best gains made by the farmers of Fayette in the direction of employing improved methods during the year, it is a very concrete measure of advancement made. With the wide-awake farmers coming in, in friendly competition through annual displays of the products of their skill in grain and fruit raising, a stimulus to better production is being provided. The prospect that they may gain the distinction as the growers of the best wheat, corn, potatoes or other food products in the county, rather than gain a prize of large intrinsic value, shows that the contestants are most concerned in learning better how to apply the latest and best methods in cultivation.

Although it has been the experience of the farm bureaus in all the different counties that their work does not appeal to all the farmers, and particularly to those who have not all need to get out of the old rut they have been traveling because their fathers farmed that way, the farm agents are encouraged by the knowledge that the worthwhile farmers are eager to avail themselves of the instruction provided. The history of every county having a farm bureau has abundantly proven that the majority of the farmers have profited in direct proportion as they have applied the lessons imparted through this highly important and valuable first aid to agriculture. Production has been increased, soils made more fertile, crops diversified, costs reduced and larger profits have been obtained. Farm life has been invigorated with a new charm and the importance of agriculture as our basic industry has been more generally realized.

The farm bureaus have taken steps in the forward movement in agriculture and model raising do not exist, the view that farm products shows, farmers' institutes, corn and egg clubs, stock feeding demonstrations and other so-called "fanciful notions" are a waste of time. From each of these agencies they have acquired definite and accurate knowledge which they have been able to apply to their individual profit and to the advancement of their calling generally. The farmers who have lagged behind are falling still farther in that rear of the procession which is moving steadily on toward those ideals and standards which are destined to give farm life and the business of farming that position in the economy of things which production, as contrasted with consumption, must have and eventually will attain if we are to grow and prosper as a nation.

President Millerand of France and President-elect Harding of the United States will soon be eligible for admission to the cabinet maker's union.

The census returns beget the suspicion that the enumeration must have been made on circus day when "up the folks" had come into town.

Have you noticed the great similarity between the now current propaganda about the "wonderful little guy" and the pre-war propaganda about the "wonderful efficiency of the German machine" and the "overpowering strength of the German war machine"?

Splendid opportunities are offered pedestrians today to take full measure of themselves.

The salaries reported to be paid movie actors and actresses, look quite ludicrous if advertising material. Will they appear in the same plain figures on the income tax returns?

Uncle Sam's Thrift Campaign

By Dr. Frank Crane

Copyright, 1920.

(Reprint by permission.)

The strength of any government is the people behind it.

To improve the quality of the citizens, to make them braver, more industrious, and a better disciplined should be the government's first aim.

This is more important than to raise up vast armies and build navies, for the best defense of a nation is the character of its people.

One of the good results of the war against "baby" distressful, was that the liberty bond and war stamp campaigns raised up a horde of some 20,000,000 investors in the United States.

The government is continuing this good work in time of peace.

On the first of January the government placed on sale a $1 savings stamp and a $5 savings certificate.

This is in addition to the present denominations.

The government is also actively urging its people, even the poorest, to save and to invest in these securities.

The fundamental principle of sound investment should never be lost sight of. It is that the less one has to pay for the more one should look for return, rather than high interest.

In amounts less than $1,000 at least there is no security in the world so good as that of the government.

The reason is simple. If the government does not pay its debts no one else will pay his debts.

The United States of America, the richest and most prosperous nation on the globe, offers to borrow of its citizens their money, in any sum from five cents up, and on amounts of $5 and over to pay four per cent interest compounded quarterly.

Here is the greatest possible investment to have a security as absolutely safe as it is possible in this world, good interest, and your money back practically when you want it.

Every school teacher in the country ought to be an earnest agent of the government, urging the children to save. The government has provided booklets for this purpose and will cooperate with the teachers.

Nothing makes for better work, more efficient production, a better spirit, and less envy, dissatisfaction and unrest, so much as the worker's knowledge that he has a little sum saved up which is growing bigger every week.

Thrift is the bedrock of national prosperity.

Thrift is that which insures the permanence of our institutions and respect for law and a man's right to what he has earned.

An important meeting of the farm bureau, under the auspices of which the show is being held, called for yesterday afternoon in Uniontown was also well attended. The principal speaker was J. C. Brubaker, president of the Lancaster county farm bureau. Mr. Brubaker described the work of the bureau in his home county, its success and its value to the farmers. The Lancaster bureau is on the paid membership basis and has approximately 70 members. An effort is being made to secure enough bureaus with paid memberships to form a state federation which will in turn become a member of the national federation thus bringing to local, individual farmers the benefits of a large organization. There are now about 10 bureaus that are ready to enter such a federation.

Banishing Monthly Sermons.

Atlantic Monthly.

The custom in the mountain districts of the south is to have a funeral service every two or three years for all the people who have died during that time. Each one is buried at the time of his death, but the funeral is reserved for a later day, usually the anniversary of his death. This custom is convenient for a later day, but it is not convenient for the living. The funeral is a time when the living are reminded of the death of their loved ones. This custom is being banished in the south and is being replaced by a more modern custom. The funeral is now held as soon as possible after the death of the person.

TAN OVERCROWDED HOUSE.

St. Paul is sleeping on the floor, Boswell and Johnson on a bench. She says we have no room for more; Baldie who wrote of people French, Must rest where'er he chance to fall. Old friends are tossed in dusty nooks; Now every shelf, in the room or hall, Is made a lodging place for backs.

"There is no room," says she, "for more!" Who shares my every meal and bed? "There's Stevenson behind the door, And there's your old friend Oliver Poe, Got rid of some of them," she cries, "Out with them, bag and baggage, now!" But oh, they are so good and wise, I want to keep them all somehow.

In double rows I've buckled the throng, And friendly folk I've squeezed between them.

The poets with their gift of song, Remble warbling in the air, Chris Norley has to sleep between John Massfield and the older Keats, And even though they be unclear, There is no room to change the sheets.

Never I venture forth to roam, But when I return I bring Some other new or old friend home, And old Baldie cries his warning: And mother tells me to my face, As she puts on her blackest looks, I've made the house a lodging place— A crowded room of a house.

INFLAMMATION

The Ointment to apply for Relief and the Vapor Treatment

Be sure your ointment to relieve childhood ailments as well as those of the adults is both effective and harmless—use Krew-Pina which is scientifically compounded entirely from harmless simple home remedies such as Oil of Pine and other volatile oils. It is famous for its alleviative properties, at the same time, it can be applied to the most tender skin without risk of blistering or any other harmful effect.

Krew-Pina also enables you to vaporize the air passages and lungs to relieve deep seated colds—it reaches inflammation that otherwise could not be treated by means of the medicinal vapors it gives off for the patient to inhale.

Follow the printed instructions that come with it or pack-ups in cases of colds, croup, whooping cough, coughs, sore throat, influenza, stuffy nose, neuralgia, etc.

Free Sample of Krew-Pina will be sent to any address on request. THE KREW-PINA CO., INC., WAYNESBURG, PA.

FAYETTE A. C. HAS STRONG CARD FOR TOMORROW'S SHOW

Tommy Phillips and Old Rival, John Welsh to Mix It: Fine Preliminary Rides.

The Fayette Athletic club is getting prepared to handle one of the fairest crowds of the season tomorrow night at Stavieh hall. The star bout of 10 rounds will bring together for the first time two bitter rivals Tommy Phillips of McKeesport, a left slugging who will oppose a slashing boxer in Johnny Welsh of Pittsburgh.

In the semi-final bout the club of fers an exceptionally strong attraction. Mike Moran of Mount Washington will mix it up with Pete Alvin, the famous unattractive bantam, who recently turned professional. Considerable interest has been shown in the four-round preliminary. This will show two local boys battling. Burkett of the Cap tan Glass company who will meet Old the Thorpe of Dunbar.

In addition to the boxing bouts there will be a "bottle royal" the club will present, one of the strongest cards of the season. Tickets are being rapidly disposed of showing considerable interest in the event. The Fayette Athletic club has met with the approval of the fans. Tomorrow's show of Scottsdale will not see.

SMITHFIELD Jan 12 (The Fayette National bank held its election Tuesday. There was no change in the directors. W. J. Lee in the president's chair has held the position 11 years today.

The P. O. S. of a land of their chance will give a concert in the P. O. S. hall at Smithfield in Fayette evening January 21. The concert will be under the personal supervision of Professor Charles E. Dyer, concert soloist, composer and band director.

Mrs. J. S. Moore returned Monday from a trip to Ohio where she had been to examine the property of the contemplative business in the Berkeley state.

The business places in the village will be closed in time for all to attend the service. During the continuance of the special services being held at the different churches in the town. Now if he is a set would do like vice and for a set of it under the name of the coming thing (which is a don't) it would be more encouraging to those I saw him in. I will continue their good work. When coming members of this on hunches right in the midst of the service will give each price of the home again under the shadow of the church's way. I very discourage a to those who are doing for our community uplift.

IDENTITY OF MOTHER DESERTED BABE STILL UNSOLVED BY POLICE

Numerous Offers at Mount Pleasant for Adoption of "Joseph."

ODD FELLOWS INITIATE CLASS

Mrs. Arthur Page Entertains Women of United Brethren Missionary Society; Mothers Continue to Show Interest in Red Cross Baby Clinic.

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, Jan. 14.—The identity of the mother of the babe left last week at the door of the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Frankforter, Church street, remains unknown to the officers who have been conducting an investigation. They say they have clues but none have developed any concrete evidence, so far as has been ascertained. Meanwhile the babe, "Joseph," is thriving at the Memorial hospital. There have been a number of inquiries from persons wanting to adopt the infant.

Mrs. Arthur Page, hostess.
Mrs. Arthur Page entertained the women of the United Brethren Missionary society at her home yesterday afternoon with their regular monthly meeting. There was a good attendance, and following the program refreshments were served and a very pleasant social hour spent.

Odd Fellows Initiate.
A large number of the Odd Fellows of Mosses lodge went to Pleasant Unity last evening where a class made up of Mount Pleasant and Pleasant Unity Odd Fellows was initiated. Following the initiation refreshments were served.

Auto Repair Concern Formed.
Glen Harrison, formerly mechanic with "Old Peg," and Charles Keller have formed a partnership in the automobile repair business and opened a shop at the garage in the rear of the Marion Husband property, South Church street.

New Faces at Clinics.
Despite the bad weather there still continues to be a good attendance at the baby clinic conducted by the local Red Cross chapter in the Braddock building. New baby faces are seen each Thursday, showing to those in charge that interest is being taken in the new movement. Mrs. Port, the Red Cross community nurse, is being kept very busy with visits.

Rehearsal for Comedy.
Drama rehearsal for the musical comedy "All Aboard," to be given for the benefit of the American Legion, will be held in the Grand opera house on Sunday afternoon. The play will be presented in the opera house January 20 and 21.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.

Can Tell.
Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Adv.

"THE DEVIL'S PASS KEY"—A picture in which the gay life of Paris has been depicted with unusual realism, is an interesting attraction today. Sam deGrasse, who played the part of the husband in "Mind Husband," has the part in "The Devil's Pass Key" of an American author living in Paris with his attractive wife, played by Una Trevelyn. She becomes deeply indebted to an unscrupulous modiste, who expects her to adopt the method of getting a rich admirer to pay her bills. The modiste involves her with a wealthy American army officer, who realizes that she is innocent and unsophisticated. He unselfishly helps her in order to shield another woman with whom he has a passing flirtation.
The husband hears of the incident but does not know the identity of the persons concerned. He uses the facts for the plot of a play which proves a great success. The fact that all Paris

FINDS HELPFUL ADVICE IN LETTER FROM A FRIEND

Henry L. Bush of Curry Pa., Read How an Old Friend Had Been Helped by Nerv-Worth, and Give It a Trial, He Likewise Received Help.

"I read about John Long getting so much good out of Nerv-Worth and having known Mr. Long for years, I decided to try it too," said Mr. Bush, who lives at 145 E. Conover St., Corry. "My nerves have been bothering me for four or five years, and two years ago I was almost knocked out. I was restless and so I couldn't sleep, and I'd roll and tumble all night. I ate really too much, but the food I did eat didn't do me any good. I had lots of gas in my stomach that caused me pain and I was losing flesh. My feet and hands would be cold all the time. Since taking Nerv-Worth, believes he has deliberately paraded his wife's indiscretions before the public for his own financial advantage leads to a climax as startling as it is unexpected.

The masterly direction of von Stroheim, the skillful portraiture of every character in the story, and the entire succession of scenes remarkable for their size and realism make "The Devil's Pass Key" one of the most intense and spectacular photodramas of the screen. The picture will also be shown tomorrow.

THE PARAMOUNT

star scene, about the yacht have been admirably staged and the events of the first reel get a firm hold on the spectator. The later scenes on the barren island have a good romantic swing. The supporting cast includes Jack Perrin, Leonard Shamway and Harry Carter, all good types. The outstanding feature of this production is its beautiful settings, romantic atmosphere and the remarkable photographic effects that have been obtained.

THE ORPHEUM.

"SKY-EYE"—The sensational aerial picture, produced with the cooperation of the United States Army Air Service, is being shown today and will also be presented tomorrow. Six thousand feet of thrill were the final results in which an absorbing story of love, unscrupulous methods and heroism is interwoven. The Texas Oil Fields, the Ellington Aviation Fields and the clouds are the scenes of action. One scene in the picture required the burning of over five hundred barrels of oil, but the newly made oil operators expressed their greatest sorrow at this action, for they already knew the value of this product. "Sky-Eye" is probably the most thrilling picture of its kind ever produced, in fact the only picture which has part of its locale in the clouds, coupled with a beautiful love story. The spectators will experience such thrills as a jump from plane to plane in mid-air, a parachute drop of two thousand feet, a leap from a plane to a swift moving train and other stunts equally startling. The cast includes Harry Meyers, June Keith, Thelma Kenley, Lieutenant Russell, Hunt as "Sky-Eye" and many others.

HUDSON BAY, WHERE NAVAL BALLOONISTS LANDED, WAS END OF NAVIGATOR'S DREAM

"In coming to earth near Moose Factory, at the southernmost point of Hudson Bay, pilots of the United States naval balloon which recently was blown from New York City to the frozen north in relatively a few hours, stumbled on a country rich in the history and traditions of the picturesque old Hudson Bay company," says a bulletin issued from the Washington D. C. headquarters of the National Geographic society.

"Henry Hudson—Hendrick—Hudson to his Dutch employers—was responsible, strangely enough, for putting on the map both the starting and ending point of this recent chance balloon trip. In 1609 he anchored his famous 'Half Moon' close to the present location of New York's Goddess of Liberty, and the following year, still searching for the elusive Northwest Passage, he sailed into Hudson Bay and followed its eastern shore south to near the present Moose Factory.

"It was there in James Bay, the shallow southern arm of Hudson Bay, that Henry Hudson, suffering the keenness of disappointment that can come only to the world's great dreamers, his dream was to find a passage to the 'South Sea,' and therefore a short cut to India. When he sailed into Hudson Bay and found that it was a great body of water he was sure his dream was about to be realized. But when he reached the shallow James Bay, and nosing across, found that there was a west coast to the great expanse of water his dream came to an end.

"It was on the shores of James Bay that Hudson and his surly crew wintered, following his discovery, and only a short distance to the north that the great explorer met his tragic end next spring, when, bound by mutineers, he was set adrift in a small boat with a handful of sick men, to perish.

"The Company of Gentlemen Adventurers Trading to Hudson's Bay," which carved dominion for Great Britain across North America, established its first port near Moose Factory soon after King Charles II signed its charter in 1670 and blithely made its members "free and absolute lords of three quarters of a continent, vested them with trading monopolies, rights to pass laws and impose punishments.

and even gave them power to make war on non-Christian peoples. During the three and a half centuries since that time Moose Factory has remained one of the important posts of the Hudson Bay company, gathering a rich harvest of furs. It was the scene of many raids and counter raids in the early days between the French and the company's employees.

"Hudson Bay is one of the most characteristic features on the map of North America, standing out as strikingly as the Gulf of Mexico and covering almost as great an area. Though it falls far short of furnishing a passage to the 'South Sea' as the early explorer hoped, its westernmost coast is on the very center-line of the continent. Much of the surrounding territory of the bay is unexplored wilderness. This is especially true of the eastern coast toward Labrador.

"On the west coast are Port Churchill, the bay's best port, and about a hundred miles to the south, Port Nelson. Both these ports are to be connected by railroads with Winnipeg and the wheat and cattle country to the west. Sailing vessels ply Hudson Bay between July 15 and October 1, and steamers for a slightly longer period. When the railroads increase the importance of the Hudson Bay ports it is believed that ice-crushing ships will make possible the shipping of cargoes between June 15 and November 1. By the Hudson Bay route Edmonton, Alberta, is 1,000 miles nearer Liverpool than by the Montreal route.

"Moose Factory at the southernmost reaches of Hudson Bay, though isolated from the settled part of Canada by forests and swamps in summer, and frozen wastes in winter, is only about as far from New York as Chicago. This distance from Ottawa to Moose Factory is about equal to that from New York to Pittsburgh."

The Truth About Eczema and Piles

Thousands and thousands of people, says Peterson, are learning every week that one 35 cent box of Peterson's Ointment will abolish eczema and hemorrhoids, and the grateful letters I receive every day and week prove it more than money.

"I had eczema for many years on my hands and could not get anything to stop the itching. I saw your ad and got one box and I was your happy customer for the rest of the year. I have had a blotch on my head now and I couldn't help but thank Peterson for the cure. It is great."—Miss Mary Hill, 428 Third Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

I have had itching piles for 15 years and Peterson's is the only ointment that relieves me. Besides the place sent to have ointment. A. B. Ringer, 1127 Washington Avenue, Madison, Wis.

Use Peterson's Ointment for all skin diseases, eczema, chafing and all skin troubles. Druggists, grocers, mail order stores. Sold by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

GROCE UP AGAINST IT

"I have been up against it for past three years suffering from pain in my stomach and side until I was considering giving up my grocery business. Doctors and medicine did not help me. I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy through a friend in Buffalo. The first dose gave me more benefit than all the medicine I had taken before and am now feeling as well as ever in my life." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the curdled mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. A. A. Clarke and Druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Why Weak Glands Make People "Cranky"

Scientists tell us that our glands govern the building up of the billions of cells in our muscles and nerves, and that when we are nervous, irritable, "cranky," depressed or given to worrying it is an indication that our glands are run-down. The thing to do is to build them up. One preparation which thousands of people are now using with splendid results is Glandex Compound. This contains slices and cattle gland extracts which help supply the elements lacking in run-down glands. The success of Glandex Compound in treating nervous diseases is surprising. The first few treatments usually bring decided results, and soon the nerves are often as strong and calm as ever. Glandex Compound is sold at all drug stores. Your money back if not perfectly satisfied with results.
